Is Your Teenager Bored? How About Volunteering!

Many teenagers and young adults have a considerable amount of spare time, particularly in the summer and during school breaks. As a parent, encourage your child to take advantage of these times by exploring a new interest, planning for the future, pursuing a hobby or skill, or by volunteering time for a worthwhile endeavor. Although it is not frequently considered as an option for many adolescents, volunteering can give your child the opportunity to develop interests, challenge capabilities, and identify new strengths and talents.

You may wish to speak to your teenager about the reasons that people volunteer their time. Volunteering provides teenagers many opportunities.
